Novena Prayer
to the Holy Spirit

O Holy Spirit, O my God, we adore you, and acknowledge, here in your divine presence, that we are nothing and can do nothing without you. Come, great Paraclete. You father of the poor, you comforter the best, fulfil the promise of our blessed Savior, who would not leave us orphans, and come into the mind and the heart of your poor, unworthy creatures, as you descended on the sacred day of Pentecost on the Holy Mother of Jesus and on His first disciples.

Grant that we may participate in those gifts which you communicated to them so wonderfully and with so much mercy and generosity. Take from our heart whatever is not pleasing to you and make of it a worthy dwelling place for yourself. Illuminate our mind, that we may see and understand the things that are for our eternal good.

Aglow our hearts with pure love of you, that we may be cleansed from the dross of all inordinate attachments, and that our whole life may be hidden with Jesus in God. Strengthen our will that we may be made comfortable to your divine will and be guided by your inspirations. Aid us by your grace to practice the divine lessons of humility, poverty, obedience, and contempt of the world, which Jesus taught us in His mortal life. Amen.
